

Ideas for Learning at Home with your children

- Draw someone sleeping
- Encourage time in nature
- Hands on learning in nature
- Planning, growing vegetables,
- Have a pretend wedding
- Going through toy boxes and clear out
- Simple, DIY art projects
- Learn something new - e.g instrument/new skill
- Gardening - planting seeds/grow a herb garden
- Make bird houses
- Play with your siblings
- Creative play (dress ups, shows, performances, etc)
- Read books together
- Family game nights
- Learn to tie your shoes
- Sew on buttons
- Adopt a dog
- Help with cooking, house chores
- Family Dinners - make it a learning time
- Baking
- Plan an awesome Christmas gift for your teacher
- Spiral pass 20m off both hands
- Free Drawing
- Reading to children/being read to
- Dress Up's - making up plays #drama
- Puppet Shows - making their own sock puppets
- Sewing/Hand stitching

- Family DIY Home Project
- Spring cleaning
- Pest control
- Make the bed
- Cooking - Following recipes
- Learning how to do the washing (household chores)
- Exercise (timing yourself - challenges)
- Art/Crafts
- Get into LETTER WRITING - pen pals/whanau
- Family skypes/video calling regularly talking to each other
- Parents download Family Link (app which allows parents to control children's amount of time on a device).
- Tinkering with tools - pull things apart and put them back together.
- Start a savings programme to pay for a gift.
- Play the piano
- Tell the time
- Jigsaws
- Drawing pictures, of autumn leaves
- Get outside amongst the leaves etc
- Preserving
- Origami
- Fortune Tellers
- Lego/building blocks
- Dolls and Action figures - make believe, making plays etc
- Teddy Bears picnic

- Cross stitching
- Teaching them how to use money (monopoly)
- AIM High Values
- Learn how to bowl to a plan - leg spin, leg spin, wrong'n.
- BYC
- Communicate with family and friends that they can't see during this time (write a letter, card, email)
- Learn how to clean out a ruck like Miss Lampe
- Sports outside

- Bury rubbish and see if it decomposes
- TALK
- Reading to/listening to reading (books they enjoys)
- Learn the guitar
- BALL SKILLS - Catching, bouncing etc
- EXERCISE - make a daily exercise plan
- Make a sandwich
- Pack school lunches
- Make your own board or card game
- Go eeling (kids with creeks etc on their own farms)